Popcorn Anyone?

If your kids are anything like mine— they love having a big bowl of popcorn and snuggling under a blanket to watch a good movie!

What they sometimes don’t realize, is when you read a great book you can get completely absorbed! The words come to life right in your imagination.

Why not have the best of both worlds? Spend time reading a chapter a night of a great book and when you have it done— you get to watch the movie together! Below are a few suggestions in different age categories to get a great tradition started, but there are many more book/movie combos out there.

<table>
<thead>
<tr>
<th>Ages 4-7</th>
<th>Ages 8-11</th>
<th>Ages 12+</th>
</tr>
</thead>
</table>
| How the Grinch Stole Christmas
Dr. Seuss               | Swiss Family Robinson
Johann David Wyss           | The Outsiders
S. E. Hinton              |
| Horton Hears a Who
Dr. Seuss               | Charlie and the Chocolate Factory
Roald Dahl         | The Chronicles of Narnia
C. S. Lewis              |
| Winnie the Pooh
A. A. Milne             | Wonder
R.J. Palacio           | Harry Potter
J.K. Rowling           |
| Curious George
H. A. Rey               | Charlotte’s Webb
E. B. White            | Hunger Games
Suzanne Collins        |
| Where the Wild Things Are
Maurice Sendak         | Jumanji
Chris Van Allsburg     | Little Women
Louisa May Alcott      |
| The Gruffalo
Julia Donaldson         | Stuart Little
E. B. White            | Nim’s Island
Wendy Orr              |
| Cloudy with a Chance of Meatballs
Judi Barrett          | Treasure Island
Robert Louis Stevenson  | Journey to the Center of the Earth
Jules Verne          |